

A photograph of the Mint Museum Uptown building, a modern structure with a prominent cantilevered upper section. The building is set against a backdrop of other city buildings under a clear blue sky. The text is overlaid on the lower half of the image.

Mint Museum Uptown

Mint Museum Uptown houses the internationally renowned Craft + Design collection, as well as outstanding collections of American and contemporary art.

Take a break from your meetings and visit Charlotte's Mint Museum located just a short (0.7) mile walk from the hotel. The Picasso Landscapes- Out of Bounds exhibition is currently on display. This traveling exhibit is making only TWO stops in the United States, the Mint Museum being the only East Coast venue. This is not something you'll have the opportunity to see again as it closes in Charlotte on May 21st. Sign up now and walk to the Mint Museum with fellow Rotarians. Payment will be taken upon entry to the museum.

Mint Museum regular admission: $15

Mint Museum regular admission + Picasso exhibit: $25